

James Long

1942 - 2005

My Uncle Jim (my father's brother) was quite a character -- warm, creative with a rye sense of humor. To know him was to have A LOT of phone messages. And I miss those phone messages now.

Uncle Jim was the self appointed family newsletter. Through him, we all kept up with one another.

He would have been pleased, I think, to see all of us gathered together.

Farewell Uncle Jim.
You are missed.
